Pearlman Food Pantry

Imagine having to choose between paying your rent or buying food. Or imagine having to decide whether you can wait another week to refill your medically necessary prescription in order to buy some groceries. Now imagine your child going to bed with a growling tummy. Nearly half of those served through food pantries are children.

In a recent report published by the Orlando Sentinel, there has been a frightening 152% increase of people going to local food banks since last year. In 2009, the Pearlman Pantry hit critically low levels of food on five separate occasions. No food—no ability to help those coming to the pantry in their time of need.

In 2009, the Pearlman Pantry provided food for nearly 100,000 meals and provides food to residents living in Orange, Osceola and Seminole Counties, regardless of race or religion.

Your participation in our Glow & Golf allows us to help hungry adults, children and families in need.
